Posters on the Hill 2020

Each spring, the Council on Undergraduate Research hosts an annual undergraduate poster session on Capitol Hill. At this event and its related activities, members of Congress and their staff members learn about the importance of undergraduate research through talking directly with the student researchers involved in these programs.

This event will take place in Spring 2020.

Applications for Posters on the Hill 2020 open Wednesday, September 4 through Tuesday, November 5, 2019 at 11:59 pm EST. Late submissions will not be accepted. Please read the following tips, guidelines and application information thoroughly to prepare your submission.

Hanan "Alex" Hsain, College of Engineering - Presented at Posters on the Hill in 2017

Tips and guidelines:

- Tips for preparing your application to Posters on the Hill
- View examples of abstract submissions that would likely be accepted for presentation. These abstracts contain reviewer feedback:
    - Accepted Biology abstract
    - Accepted Physics and Astronomy abstract
- View examples of abstract submissions that would be rejected for presentation. These abstracts contain reviewer feedback:
    - Rejected Biology abstract
    - Rejected Physics and Astronomy Abstract

Application Information:

1. Check to ensure sure you meet the membership requirement for eligibility. This can be achieved several ways:
    1. Your home institution is an institutional member of CUR. Check the Institutional Membership Directory
        a. NC State University is an Enhanced Institutional Member of CUR and students submitting an abstract should use North Carolina State University in the submission.

2. The institution where you performed your research is a member of CUR. Check the Institutional Membership Directory
3. Your faculty advisor is a member of CUR. Check the Individual Membership Directory
4. If you are not sure of your institutional or faculty advisor membership status, please contact Janae Douglas, Membership Coordinator.
2. Review list of information required to submit and gather your submission information.
3. Ensure all individuals that will be listed on your application have created an account using the link on the login page.
4. Submit your application via the online portal by November 5, 2019 at 11:59 pm EST. Late submissions will not be accepted.

APPLY TO POSTERS ON THE HILL

If you have any questions, please email Liz Fray Hains, Manager for Student Programs.

Posters on the Hill Contact:

For questions or additional information about Posters on the Hill, please contact Student Programs. Visit CUR's Upcoming Events page to see a list of all scheduled events.

OUR Posters on the Hill Travel Award

The Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR) at NC State University will cover registration, lodging, ground and/or air transportation costs for any NC State undergraduate student selected to present at Posters on the Hill in 2020. For questions please contact Heather King at hking@ncsu.edu

---

Important: NC State University is an Enhanced Institutional Member of CUR and students submitting an abstract should use North Carolina State University in the submission.