

Dr. George T. Barthalmus was the driving force behind the creation of the State of North Carolina Undergraduate Research and Creativity Symposium. He had a passion for encouraging undergraduates to pursue their interests through the process of research, be it in the sciences, humanities, or through artistic expression. He was an advocate for early involvement of students in the research process as a way to engage and retain students in academics. To this end, the George Barthalmus Undergraduate Research Awards have been developed to promote early involvement in the research process through support of sophomores in a research project of their design.

George Barthalmus Undergraduate Research Award

Apply for awards from $100-$500
Deadline to Apply: October 18, 2019

Awards will be made to sophomores only. Students must be U.S. Citizens.

These awards are designed to assist students with development and engagement in undergraduate research. Students from all disciplines are invited to apply for the awards.

www.sncurcs.org