

WANT TO BE AN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANT?

The Office of Undergraduate Research Federal Work Study Research Assistant Positions - OUR FWS RA

Details

The Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR) through the Division of Academic & Student Affairs (DASA) will provide undergraduate research assistant positions through the Federal Work Study (FWS) program. The positions will pay up to the maximum of the students FWS award during the fall and spring semesters.

The goal of the program is to provide a work study position that allows the student to earn money through an enhanced work experience by learning about and conducting research with a faculty mentor.

These positions are available in all colleges, though some disciplines have limited mentors available and students should consider working outside their home college/discipline.

Restrictions:

- Students must be eligible for the Federal Work Study Program through their financial aid package.
- Students must be an undergraduate at NC State University.
- Students must complete the online application.
