

Who are Global Ambassadors?

Global Ambassadors are the student-led force behind Global Engagement on campus. They are the future global leaders of tomorrow, who are interested in helping to plan and facilitate campus programs dedicated to cross-cultural sharing and campus internationalization. Global Ambassadors support the Office of Global Engagement in bringing global perspectives and insights home to Raleigh and providing their peer students with opportunities to advance their international knowledge, cultural understanding, skills and experience they need to succeed in the global economy.

Responsibilities

- Attend monthly Global Ambassadors meeting (Monday evenings)
- Developing, planning and executing Global Engagement nights & other events
- Dedicating 3-5 hours per month to being a Global Ambassador
- Using social media and other platforms to promote globally focused events
- Completion of cultural competencies and leadership workshops

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate degree program.
- We are seeking students from diverse backgrounds who have an interest in engaging different world cultures. This program is open to students of all colleges and degrees.
- Dependable, organized with good time management skills and a passion to connect NC State with the world.

Benefits

- Global Ambassadors receive a wide array of benefits from participating in this program.
- Event planning experience
- Leadership, mentoring, and professional development opportunities
- Networking with like-minded students
- Certificate and graduation cord (if graduating)

How to Become a Global Ambassador

Students selected as Global Ambassadors serve for the entire academic year. Each year the application process is competitive and consists of an online application with short essays and an in-person interview. Applications will close at the end of day on March 31, 2022.

*THIS IS AN UNPAID, VOLUNTEER POSITION*

Questions? Contact globalambassadors@ncsu.edu