Deloitte's Leadership Allyship & Mentorship Program (DLAMP)

So...you're up for a challenge. Eager to tackle complex problems. Driven to make a difference. Open to learning from preeminent business leaders. We invite you to apply to Deloitte's Leadership, Allyship & Mentorship Program (DLAMP).

DLAMP is designed to connect diverse students and consulting leaders through a cohort-driven mentorship program with a focus on building meaningful connections, developing leadership skills, and cultivating professional confidence.

As part of the program, participants will be accepted into a national cohort of student leaders and paired with junior- and senior-level mentors at Deloitte Consulting. These mentors will be the focal point of a participant's network, and will help guide an experience that includes:

- Network building with Deloitte leaders based on industry and functional interests
- Career coaching and exposure to opportunities in consulting
- Preparing and practicing for applications & interviews, including resume review and case practice

Who Should Apply?

DLAMP is designed for students in their second year at North Carolina State University interested in connecting with passionate business leaders, learning about the consulting industry, and building relevant professional skills. DLAMP is open to all eligible sophomore and junior students. Because of our desire to have a diverse slate of candidates, students who identify as Black or African-American, Hispanic or Latinx, American Indian or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander, or two or more races are encouraged to apply. Accepted students will join a nationwide cohort with peers from over 30 top universities.

Applications will launch on Monday, 1/13! Feel free to reach out to dacochran@deloitte.com with any questions about the program. This application will close on Friday, February 21st.
